

RICHARD REILES

ASSISTANT LAWYER

✉ RICHARD.REILES@COBALT.LEGAL

☎ +372 665 1888

Richard is an assistant lawyer at COBALT who assists associates in their everyday work. He specialises in competition law and matters pertaining to real estate and energy sector.

Richard holds a Master of Arts degree from the University of Tartu, Estonia. He has participated in the University of Tartu Legal Clinic and has been a teaching assistant to several professors. Prior to joining COBALT's team, Richard completed several internships in various law firms. In addition, Richard has participated in the Salzburg Summer School of European Private Law and together with his team compiled the best-written work in the Estonian XXI Moot Court.

Practice areas

Competition
Energy & Utilities
Real Estate Transactions

Education & membership

Master of Arts (MA), University of Tartu, Faculty of Law, Estonia (2019)
Bachelor of Arts in Social Sciences (BA), law, University of Tartu, Faculty of Law, Estonia (2016)
Summer School of European Private Law, University of Salzburg, Austria (2018)
Member of ELSA (The European Law Students' Association)

Deals & cases

COBALT advised Ministry of Economic Affairs and Communications in drafting model energy performance contract
COBALT advised European Diversified Infrastructure Fund II on investment in Utilitas, leading private Estonian energy group